

This Michael Coper Roundtable is to be held by the Australian Academy of Law for Fellows of the Academy

TOPIC: WHAT DO NON-ACADEMIC LAWYERS THINK OF LEGAL SCHOLARSHIP – HOW DO THEY USE AND EVALUATE IT?

DATE: TUESDAY, 15 AUGUST 2023 | 5:00 PM – 7.00 PM AEST (ONLY IN PERSON)

LOCATION: HIGH COURT OF AUSTRALIA, CANBERRA ACT 2600

This roundtable will discuss how the AAL understands and evaluates the contribution of legal scholarship, considering the following questions:

- What impact does legal scholarship have, and how do we know?
- Is the number of citations a useful measure of the worth of legal scholarship or are there other ways to measure it?

Speaker: Professor Benedict Sheehy FAAL, Professor of Law, University of Canberra.

Discussants – Professor John McMillan AO FAAL and Peter Walmsley FAAL

Chair: Emeritus Professor Stephen Bottomley FAAL

Registration for the event is essential and will close at 5 pm on Friday, 11 August 2023.
